

AlmaLaurea working papers

Information for authors

Aim and scope

AlmaLaurea Working Papers is a series which aims at the dissemination of scientific papers reviewed by the AlmaLaurea staff or by external experts. They can be written either in Italian or English. This series is meant for quick publishing and - though guaranteeing compliance with proper scientific standards - its priorities are timeliness and interest raised by the discussed topics. However, the Authors take full responsibility for the contents of their respective WPs.

The main topics featured by the publications include:

- Relationship between education systems, the society and the economy
- Quality of the education systems
- Demand and supply in education
- Accumulation of human capital
- Labour market structure and mechanisms
- Assessment of educational policies

The series has its own international code, i.e. ISSN 2239-9453.

Submission criteria

To be submitted for publication, papers must be sent by e-mail to: pubblicazioni@almalaurea.it. Additional information on this series can be obtained by phone (No. +39 051 6088919) and fax (No. +39 051 6088988).

General information on format

The working papers will be formatted directly by their respective Author(s) in compliance with the publishing standards suggested by AlmaLaurea (online pdf. Editing Format).

The working papers which are compliant with the standards are refereed by the AlmaLaurea Scientific Committee. Those that are non-compliant are returned to the sender with request for re-submission in the specified format.

Refereeing process

The working papers will be refereed by the AlmaLaurea Scientific Committee either directly or indirectly (by external experts). The reviewing process will be of the double blind type. The review process shall take no longer than two months from the date of paper submission.

Dissemination

The AlmaLaurea working papers approved for publication will be:

- Available on and downloadable from the AlmaLaurea Website (both English and Italian version)
- Added to and downloadable from the REsearch Papers in EConomics (RePEC) portal (applicable only to papers written in English)
